Arch Street, Philadelphia, Pa. READ WHAT IS SAID OF THEM.

Scorr, Cortland Co., N. Y., March 21st, 1867. Dr. C. M. Jackson—Deer Str:

I. W. BEH. LF OF THE AFFLICTED.

I pen a lew lines to you. I have suffixed and doctored myself, and know bow to pity those in a like condition. Until I commenced taking your Bitters last summer, I was not able to do apything, or seem to sit un any considerable length of time. Bitters last summer, I was not able to do anything, or even to sit up any considerable length of time.—
Before I had taken the first bott e, I felt like a new man, and new, after having continued the use of them a short time, in the worst season of the year, I am oble to labor hard every day. To say the least, I think I have received more menefit from the Bitters, than all other medicines I have taken. I have not only used your bitters my-self, but have given bottles and parts of bottles to those complaining of Dyspersis and Liver Complaint, and in every case, they tell ment by have taken so medicine so beneficial as the bitters. Respectfully yours,

JAMES VON HENSOLISTER.

To Hon. Simon Cameron, Secretary of War Six-For more than three years I have been unable from a burt, to mount a horse and that with much pain. Other and new infirmities, dropsy and vertigo, admonish me that a repose of mind and body with the appliances of surgery and medicine are necessary to add a little more to life already prolonged much beyond the usual span of man. It is under such circumstances, made doubly painful by the unnatural and unjust rebellion now raging in the Southern States of our late prosperous and happy Union, that I am compelled to request that my name be placed on the list of army officers retiring from active service. As this request is tounded on an absolute right granted by a recent act of Congress, I am entirely at liberty to say that I withdraw in these momentous times from the orders of a President who has treated me with distinguished kindness and courtesy, whom I know, upon personal intercourse, to be patriotic without sectional partiality or prejudice, to be highly conscientious in the performance of every duty, of unrivalled ac-
